SPECIAL CARE POLICY
PRIORTIZING CHILDREN WITH DISABILITIES IN CHILD CARE

PARENT/GUARDIAN(S)

When you have a child with a disability or special health-care needs, it can be challenging to find the right child care services. It is important to do your research and visit the child care provider to make sure the program can meet your child's unique needs.

It is the responsibility of the parent/guardian to provide supporting documentation from a licensed healthcare professional that is dated within the last 12 months.

You must submit the following to your local Child Care Resource and Referral (CCR&R) agency:

- Medical documentation signed by a licensed healthcare professional (such as a doctor/physician, psychologist, psychiatrist) that verifies your child's disability;
- OR
- The "New Jersey Child Care Subsidy Program Child Verification Form" (CC-216) signed by a licensed healthcare professional (such as a doctor/physician, psychologist, psychiatrist) that verifies your child's disability.

Note: If you choose to submit a report from the school system, such as an Individualized Education Program (IEP) or Individualized Family Service Plan (IFSP), you must also submit the "New Jersey Child Care Subsidy Program Child Verification Form" (CC-216) signed by a licensed healthcare professional in order to verify your child's disability.

CHILD CARE PROVIDERS

The parent/guardian is responsible for submitting documentation of their child's disability to the CCR&R agency. The CCR&R agency will determine if the child(ren) meet the criteria of the "Disabled Child" definition and will authorize approval for the "Special Care Rate" (formerly known as the "Special Needs Rate").

In many instances, a new agreement may need to be reissued to the child care providers reflecting the new rate. A "Disabled Child" is defined as an individual who is less than 19 years of age who has a documented medical or physical impairment which reduces their ability to function independently; and who requires the personal services of a caretaker (child care provider) to maintain his or her basic level of functioning in an age-appropriate manner.

It is very important that all staff members participate in child development training, and any other specialized professional development training to appropriately meet the unique needs of each child.

Online Trainings are available for free or for a minimal fee through:

- The New Jersey Workforce Registry website at: <https://www.njccis.com/njccis/home> or;
- The New Jersey Child Care Subsidy Program website at: <http://www.childcarenj.gov/Providers/Training>

Child Care and Early Education Service Eligibility Application Certification

READ CAREFULLY BEFORE SIGNING

I (we) hereby certify that all of the information provided is true and correct to the best of my (our) knowledge. I (we) know that submitting false information about my (our) situation, failing to give the necessary information or causing others to hold back information is against the law and may subject me (us) to prosecution. I (we) also understand that:

- Acceptance of child care financial assistance is not for my (our) personal use or expenses and that federal, state and local public funds are and will be used as payment for costs that are directly associated with services rendered by a child care provider.
- It is unlawful to obtain financial assistance for child care services by providing any false or misleading information, including but not limited to information about my eligibility and/or information that relates to child attendance for provider records, sign-in sheets or voucher payment forms. Examples of unlawful behavior include, but are not limited to:
  - Failing to accurately report all sources of my (our) income. Examples include, but are not limited to not reporting multiple sources of income, or an increase or decrease in wage/salary, child support payments, or alimony, or any other income.
  - Failing to accurately report the amount of my income. Examples include, but are not limited to reporting the accurate amount(s) of income from self-employment; rent from property ownership or changing or altering pay stub information.
  - Failing to accurately report the number of household members. Examples include, but are not limited to failing to report that my spouse or another parent/guardian is living in the household.
  - Pre-signing and dating voucher certification forms, sign-in sheets or other provider records used to track and verify child attendance.
  - Failing to accurately verify child attendance on voucher payment records/forms within the reporting timeframes.
- This information is being given in connection with federal, state and local public funds and will be used through computer matching programs to confirm the accuracy of my (our) statements and verify my (our) income, resources and need for child care assistance, as warranted.
- Providing the requested information, including the Social Security Numbers of Parent(s)/Applicant(s), is voluntary. Agency staff may use my (our) names and Social Security information with federal and state agencies and other sources deemed necessary for official examination. However, copies of birth certificates, social security and qualified alien resident cards, if applicable, are required for all children for whom subsidy services are being requested.
- Failure to provide or deliberate misrepresentation of required information will result in the denial of my (our) application, termination of child care benefits to the family and referral to federal, state or local agencies for criminal or civil court action, garnishment of wages or tax intercept, as well as private claims collection agencies for claims action involving repayment and recovery of funds.
- Providing false or misleading information in connection with my (our) application for child care financial assistance, and/or failing to report within ten days any change in my (our) family size or family income or any other circumstances that might change my (our) eligibility, such as work/school/training status, may result in the termination of my (our) child care subsidy and make me (us) ineligible to apply for and/or receive subsidized child care for a period of six months for the first violation; for a period of 12 months for a second violation; and permanent disqualification for the third violation.
- If I receive financial assistance as a result of false or misleading information, I (we) may be responsible to repay the costs of child care and may be subject to a civil fine and possible criminal prosecution.
- I (we) understand that in order to verify my (our) income and service need, an agency representative may need to contact my (our) employer(s). I (we) hereby authorize my (our) employer(s) to release information regarding my (our) income, pay scale, hours and schedule of work to the agency to which I am applying.
